DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 15 recite that the carbon dioxide is "recycled", it is unclear how the carbon dioxide is recycled, since it is converted into a metal carbonate.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Viteri US 6170264 in view of Lalonde US 2004/0129181.

Viteri teaches a low to no pollution generating hydrocarbon combustion based power generation systems, including fossil fuel burning power plants that utilize gas and/or steam turbines (Column 1). Viteri uses terrestrial formations such as underground geological formations and oceans to sequester carbon dioxide (Column 1).

Viteri does not expressly state the steps of biologically transforming the carbon dioxide into carbonated species.

Lalande teaches a process of reducing the accumulation of greenhouse gases (Paragraph 3) using carbonic anhydrase to convert carbon dioxide produced by the burning of fossil fuels into hydrogen and bicarbonate ions (Paragraph 40). The ions are mixed with calcium chloride or sea salts and the pH is adjusted to cause carbonates to precipitate (Paragraph 41). The precipitate is used as clinker in a cement making process (Abstract).

At the time of invention it would have been obvious to perform the process of Viteri to include the steps of biologically transforming carbon dioxide into carbonated species in view of the teaching of Lalande. The suggestion or motivation would have been to transform harmful greenhouse gas into a carbonated metal harmless to the environment and useful in cement making processes (Paragraphs 3 and 39).
